Shop

Due to some technical difficulties the shop is currently down for maintenance. Investigation and reorganisation may take a while - as ever, you are welcome to get in touch if you need anything.

Just reorganised the technical section into some sense of order - click on the manual page below to go over there for a look.

Contact

To contact 2cvstuff click here to send an email, telephone and contact details can be found at the top of the terms and conditions page.

All items are of the highest quality and covered by our no quibble warranty. To keep track of what we are doing why not subscribe to our newsletter using the link on the left. The site will appeal to owners of all models from early 'A' types to those with a Charleston or Dolly - check regularly so you don't miss any of our new 2cv parts.

If you do find a problem with the site - broken links and so on please let us know. You can use the "Need Help" button, top left to leave us a message.
